shame it's in Dutch language only, hope the visual content is also clear without the Dutch text ..., then on the U-matic tape you'll find "S.O.S. from outer space" my first ever video which I quite like still. MADE several other videos with painted backdrops after this one, NEXT on the tape is the low Budget Love promotion video, a fictional product a friend of mine thought of; pieces of paper that will make you feel loved ...

See you soon, Roltz
